THE SEASON OF ADVENT

LECTIONARY C DIVINE OFFICE VOL I OF THE BREVIARY

NOVEMBER 2015

- During Advent, it is not permitted to decorate the altar with flowers, and the use of musical instruments is allowed only so as to support the singing. The same moderation should also be observed when marriages are celebrated in Advent. On Gaudete Sunday (the Third Sunday of Advent), and on Solemnities and Feasts, the altar may be decorated and the organ played.

- The commemorations indicated below may be observed as follows: At Mass, the Opening Prayer of the Saint may be said instead of the prayer of the Day. At Morning and Evening Prayer, after the final prayer, said without its ending, the Antiphon and Prayer of the Saint may be added. At the Office of Readings, after the patristic reading and its Responsory, the Reading, Responsory and Prayer of the Saint may be added.

CHRISTMASTIDE ENDS

ORDINARY TIME OF THE YEAR AFTER CHRISTMAS BEGINS

- On Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Mass which corresponds to the number of the Sunday is used, whereas on weekdays, any of the thirty-four Masses may be used (RM:pp499-532), providing that the pastoral needs of the people are taken into consideration.
- Unless a Eucharistic Prayer is used that has a proper Preface, one of the Prefaces for Sundays in Ordinary Time is said on Sundays (RM:pp606-621). On weekdays, if no other preface is appropriate to the Mass being celebrated, a Common Preface is said (RM:pp644-655).
- A Solemn Blessing for Ordinary Time may be used (RM:pp715-717).
- On Saturdays in Ordinary Time when no Obligatory Memorial occurs, an Optional Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary may be celebrated (RM:pp1098-1106).
- Two antiphons are provided for Communion, the first from the Psalms, and the second for the most part from the Gospel. One or the other may be selected, as circumstances suggest, but preference should be given to an antiphon that is in harmony with the Gospel of the Mass.

LENT BEGINS : DIVINE OFFICE VOL II OF THE BREVIARY

- “Alleluia” is omitted from Ash Wednesday until the Easter Vigil
- On the Sundays of Lent, the Te Deum is not said in the Office of Readings, neither is the Gloria used at Mass.
- On the Sundays and weekdays of Lent, at the end of Mass and before the Final Blessing, the Prayer over the People indicated for each day may appropriately be used.

- Commemorations – on the weekdays of Lent, if a commemoration is indicated, it may be observed at Mass by replacing the Collect of the day with the Collect of the Saint. At Morning and Evening Prayer, after the final prayer, said without its ending, the Antiphon and Prayer of the Saint may be added. At the Office of Readings, after the patristic reading and its Responsory, the Reading, Responsory and Prayer of the Saint may be added.
- During Lent, it is not permitted to decorate the altar with flowers, and the use of musical instruments is allowed only so as to support the singing. The same moderation should also be observed when marriages are celebrated in Lent. On Laetare Sunday (the Fourth Sunday of Lent), Solemnities and Feasts the altar may be decorated and the organ played.
- Eucharistic Prayers I and II for Reconciliation are appropriate during the season of Lent, either with their own preface, or with a Lent preface.
- The Apostles' Creed is particularly appropriate on the Sundays of Lent and Eastertide.

Preface I of Easter RM:p592

If Eucharistic Prayer I is used, “In communion with those...” and “Therefore, Lord, we pray...” have special forms.

Solemn Blessing RM:p422 may be used

Double “ALLELUIA” at dismissal

Paschal Candle remains in the Sanctuary until Pentecost Sunday.

Night Prayer II of Sundays and Solemnities is only said by those who do not attend the Easter Vigil.

Office of Readings is omitted by those who attend the celebration of the Easter Vigil.

During the Easter Season our prayers are asked for new members of the Church.
